(April 6, 2004- TROY)- Mayor Harry Tutunjian announced Wednesday that the City of Troy's 5-year Consolidated Plan is available and the public comment period open until May 2, 2005.

The new 5-year plan stresses three objectives for the City based on meetings with the general public, focus groups, and needs. Those three objectives are:

- Expanding economic opportunities in Troy, including strategies to increase employment and stimulate Troy's tax base.
- Improving neighborhood livability, particularly in North Central and South Troy.
- An increase in decent housing.
